

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, August 30. 1722.

Boston in New-England, June 18.

The Speech of his Excellency William Burnet, Esq; to the General Assembly of the Province of New-York, May 31, 1722.

Gentlemen,

I Have so much Reason to expect your ready Concurrence in every thing which is requisite for the Publick Service, that I meet you with a cheerful Confidence and an intire Dependence on your making Effectual all your former Resolutions to that End, and your coming to such new ones as will enable me to carry on those Measures on the Frontier of this Province, which I have begun with some Success, and which are of the greatest Moment for your Security.

I have now for a long time waited for the Confirmation of your Act for laying two per Cent. on European Goods, but I cannot avoid telling you not only, that it is not confirmed, but that by my best Advice, it never will: And the Reason is not hard to guess, when the Legislature at Home have passed a Law to give a Premium upon the Exportation of the British Manufactures, it is scarce to be expected that the Crown will consent to a Duty on those very Manufactures when imported into the Plantations.

As you were convinced of the Necessity of passing this Act formerly, I can have no doubt of your Readiness to find other Ways to provide for the same Purposes, in a manner that will prove Real.

There is another Expectation from the Act of the Support of Government, which you will find has not answered, and that is the sinking of a large Sum of Bills of Credit out of it, which is so far from being possible, that the Revenue will not even answer when this Load shall be taken off.

I depend therefore upon your Care to provide another Way to sink these Paper Bills.

I must take this Occasion to recommend it to you to enquire, how publick Monies have been managed since your last Meeting, and whether due Care has been taken to recover all the Arrears due to the Publick, and to apply them according to Law, and whether due Obedience has yet been paid to my Orders given in Council, to promote that Service.

I doubt not but you will pay a due Deference to His Majesty's Commands to me, to take Care that the Revenue be accounted for to His Majesty's proper Officer, of which I will send you a Copy, as I likewise will of the Manner in which the small Sum given the last Year for the Service of the Frontier has been disposed of, that you may see the Frugality with which it has been managed.

The same Frugality shall be observed in the Application of whatever Sums shall now be given for the like Services, and for the erecting and maintaining a Magazine for Powder, of which you all know the Necessity, for the Safety of this flourishing City.

Gentlemen,

I hope a sincere and disinterested Love of our Country will be our Rule in all our Proceedings; and that all private Views and indirect Measures will be discountenanced; and particularly that in your providing for the pressing Occasions of the Publick, you will turn your Thoughts in such a Manner, as will best suit the Ease and general Inclination of the People, and tend to encourage the Industry, and multiply the Number of the Inhabitants of this Province.

I shall readily join, as far as I am able, in any Laws which you can think of, for the Benefit of this Colony, and shall always have the greatest Satisfaction in my own Mind, and think I do the most acceptable Service to my Sovereign, when I promote the Happiness of the People.

W. BURNET.

London, August 30.

Yesterday arrived the Mails from France and Flanders.

Stockholm, Aug. 19. The Commissioners appointed to enquire into the Conduct of Commodore Ulrich, have judged convenient to order him to remain confined to his own House, till his Case is thoroughly examined: He was entrusted with the Command of the Ships bound to Madagascar, and accordingly, did sail as far as Cadix; but instead of continuing his Voyage, came back hither of his own accord. A Ship laden with Salt from Amsterdam being arrived at Gothland, was stopt there, not having Bills of Health certified by the Swedish Ministers: The Master is come hither to solicit the taking off the Imbargo, alledging, he knew nothing of the Contents of the new Placard published in this Kingdom. It is believed, the Senate will not assemble before the middle of next Month.

Paris, Sept. 5. A solemn Service was performed by the Archbishop of Rheims the 1st Instant, in the Church of the Royal Abbey of St. Denis, for the Repose of the Soul of Lewis XIV. The Count de Toulouse and others of the Nobility, were present at this Solemnity. The Chapter of St. Honoré deputed several of their Canons the 27th past, to compliment the Cardinal du Bois on his Promotion to the Prime Ministership; the University has also sent a Deputation on the same Occasion, and the Rector desired the Cardinal's Protection for the Body of Doctors, after the Example of the Cardinals Richelieu and Mazarin, which his present Eminency likewise has promised. The Doctors of the Sorbonne have also resolved to appoint some of their Members to congratulate the Cardinal. A Dispute was begun between the Musicians of the King's Chamber, and those of his Chapel, both of them pretending to a Right of composing a Musical Ode for his Majesty's Coronation-Day; but the Matter was determined in Favour of the former. A little after the Cardinal Prime Minister had taken the Oaths for that high Employment, he caused 1000 Pistoles to be distributed among the Chamberkeepers and inferior Officers of the Court, instead of the 2000 Crowns that are usually given as Fees upon taking Oaths for great Places. A few Days past, 6 or 700 Clerks of the Liquidations were dismissed, reserving only some of the principal ones to finish that Work, and the Tax Account of the new Acquisitions. The dismissed Clerks were all required to deliver in Writing to M. Barcine, an Account of their Names, Places of Abode, and the Employments they had in the Vise, and what Occupations they followed before they were taken into the Office; 'tis said this was done in order to their being hereafter provided for according to their respective Talents, as Opportunity offers. A solemn Service was performed the 2d Instant in the Jesuite Church of St. Lewis, for the Repose of the Soul of the late Henry de Bourbon, Prince of Condé; this Service was founded by M. Persault, President of the Chamber of Accounts, Intendant, and Chief Councillour to that Prince; the Funeral Oration was pronounced by M. de Chantoiseau, Curate of St. Anthony's. Sig. Foscarini, one of the Venetian Ambassadors, has been out of Order these few Days past, and his Colleague Sig. Thiopolo is very ill, which prevents their publick Entry on the 6th Instant, as was intended. The King of Spain has lately requested the Duke of Orleans to send him a Painter to draw the Pictures of the Royal Family at Madrid; accordingly his

Royal

Royal Highness has appointed for that Purpose M. Rank, a Native of Montpellier, the King's Painter in Ordinary, who has lately very well drawn the Regent's Picture and the Duke of Chartres's: He is to have 3000 Livres for the Expences of his Journey, 10000 Livres Salary, and his Pictures to be paid for besides. The Parliament has been again assembled to take into Consideration the Answer to their Remonstrances, which was exactly as was expected; nevertheless, they still refuse to Register the Edicts and Declarations required of them, but it is supposed Letters of Jussion will be sent, to make them proceed. The Liquidations are under 26 Livres, and Actions are above 700.
